

REYL Group partners with Swiss Paralympic ahead of the Tokyo 2020 Games

Geneva, 14 January 2019. In the spirit of its collaboration with world-class athletes, the REYL Group has agreed to sponsor Swiss Paralympic, ahead of the Paralympic Games to be held in Tokyo in 2020.

Swiss Paralympic selects the top Swiss athletes to compete in the Paralympic Games and disability sport championships in Europe and the world. Thanks to its sponsors it organises and funds its athletes to take part in national and international competitions.

Competing at the highest level as a Paralympian is a constant physical and mental commitment. With this sponsorship deal, the REYL Group is throwing its weight behind the athletes who will be selected by Swiss Paralympic to take part in the Tokyo 2020 Paralympics, to enable these elite sportswomen and sportsmen to focus all their attention on their preparation and training.

Thomas Troger, Chairman of Swiss Paralympic: "Switzerland must create an optimal sporting environment if it is to continue on the path to success. Committed sponsors who believe in the Paralympic dream and its parasporting values are vital to bring this about. In acting on its enthusiasm for these values, the REYL Group is acknowledging and backing the passion and international success of our Paralympians. This partnership aligns perfectly with our ideals."

François Reyl, CEO of REYL & Cie: We are proud of this sponsorship through which we can play a small part in promoting Swiss parasports at the highest level. This partnership illustrates the values of passion, pushing oneself, humility and determination that are shared by our Group and these outstanding athletes."

Nicolas Duchêne, Partner at REYL & Cie: "In demonstrating our commitment to Swiss Paralympic we want to support our national parasporting elite and hope that others will be inspired by the feats they perform and the amazing mental strength and energy they display."
