

REYL Group strengthens Structured Finance presence

Geneva/London, 31 October 2018. REYL & Cie Ltd ("REYL") has further strengthened its growing Structured Finance capability in its London office with the appointment of James Spooner as Managing Director in Corporate Advisory & Structuring.

The news demonstrates the continued focus for Structured Finance opportunities based in London, following the appointment of Ante Razmilovic earlier this year to lead the Bank's Structured Finance business.

James Spooner, who joined the group on 15 August, will be working closely alongside Ante Razmilovic to develop the structured finance business, working with clients to identify and execute bespoke alternative financing solutions.

James Spooner joins from Goldman Sachs' Securities Division where he held a number of prominent roles in exotic derivatives trading. He brings over 10 years of financial experience with expertise in derivatives, structured investments, secured finance, securitization and risk management. James holds a master's degree in Mathematics from Oxford University.

Christian Fringhian, Partner, Head of Corporate Advisory & Structuring at REYL & Cie, comments: "We are very pleased to welcome James Spooner to REYL. He has considerable industry experience and will play a significant role in the further development and enhancement of REYL's Structured Finance business."

Ante Razmilovic, Managing Director, says: "REYL prides itself on providing innovative solutions to its entrepreneurial client base and we are looking forward to continuing this ethos. I am very excited to welcome James in order to help build the Structured Finance business where we see a clear opportunity to use our financial expertise to unlock value for clients and investors."
