

REYL & Cie named Best Private Bank – Client Service

Geneva, February 9, 2017. REYL & Cie ("REYL") is proud to have been awarded the accolade of "Best Private Bank – Client Service" in the Wealth Briefing Swiss Awards 2018 ceremony, held in Geneva last night.

The award sets REYL apart from its peers and recognises a continued strong period of expansion for the Bank, which has shown uninterrupted growth of both assets under management and employees for 15 consecutive years.

The judges, comprising of a panel of trusted advisors from across the sector, noted the benefits of REYL's boutique structure, and its dedication to constant innovation and highly personalised services, as well as its evolving high value-added services addressing the increasingly complex needs of a global, sophisticated and mobile client base of entrepreneurs and institutional investors.

Commenting on the award, Lorenzo Rocco di Torrepadula, Partner, Head of Wealth Management and member of the Executive Committee of REYL & Cie Ltd said: "Client service is at the heart of REYL's operations, and we are thrilled that Wealth Briefing has recognised this by naming us Best Private Bank for this category. Our unique diversified business model brings added value to our Wealth Management clients giving them a direct and transversal access to our complete range of services, including Corporate & Family Governance, Corporate Advisory & Structuring and Asset Management. We will continue to evolve our offering in order to both anticipate and accommodate the ever-developing needs of our clients."
