

REYL & Cie named Outstanding Private Bank for UHNW Clients

Geneva/London, 14 June 2019. REYL & Cie is proud to have received the Outstanding Private Bank for UHNW Clients award at Private Banker International's ceremony held in London last night.

The Private Banking & Wealth Management Awards honour major achievements and leaders in the European market. The jury, made up of investment professionals and financial journalists, recognised the high added value initiatives developed by the REYL Group aimed at satisfying and surpassing the expectations of its UHNW clients. In April, REYL & Cie was voted Best European Private Bank - Client Service at the WealthBriefing European Awards.

REYL's truly collaborative and integrated approach between business lines, teams and offices has, once again, demonstrated its efficiency. Against a background of robust growth, the Group continues to stand out from its competitors through its personalised solutions, thanks to a 360-degree approach to managing individuals' and companies' assets, across borders and business segments.

Chief Executive Officer François Reyl said "Our constant focus on innovation and customer service has led to the success of our business model and accounts for our steady growth. We plan to pursue this strategy over the coming years in order to continue to meet the needs of entrepreneurs, family offices and institutional investors, drawing on the expertise of our Wealth Management, Entrepreneur & Family Office Services, Corporate Advisory & Structuring, Asset Services and unlisted Asset Management business lines."
